

CODE OF CONDUCT

A reminder that you've all agreed to abide by our Code of Conduct. In short this means:

Respect everyone involved in the event.

You must not harass, discriminate, be violent or inappropriate towards anyone involved in the event.

If you're asked to stop something, please stop immediately

You can read more about and report violations of this code at bashfestival.io/about/conduct

NEED HELP?

If you need support try the #help channel in the BASH Festival of Code Slack

Join the Slack at bashfestival.io/slack

You can find a technical resource list at bashfestival.io/guides/resources (if you know any good resources please submit them)

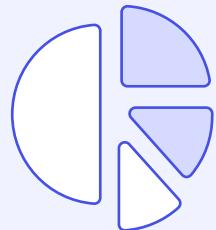

If you need help related to your specific hub, please use the Slack channel for the hub

CHALLENGES

Build a physical or digital game

Present data in novel ways

Use tech to create music

Wildcard - work
on something else

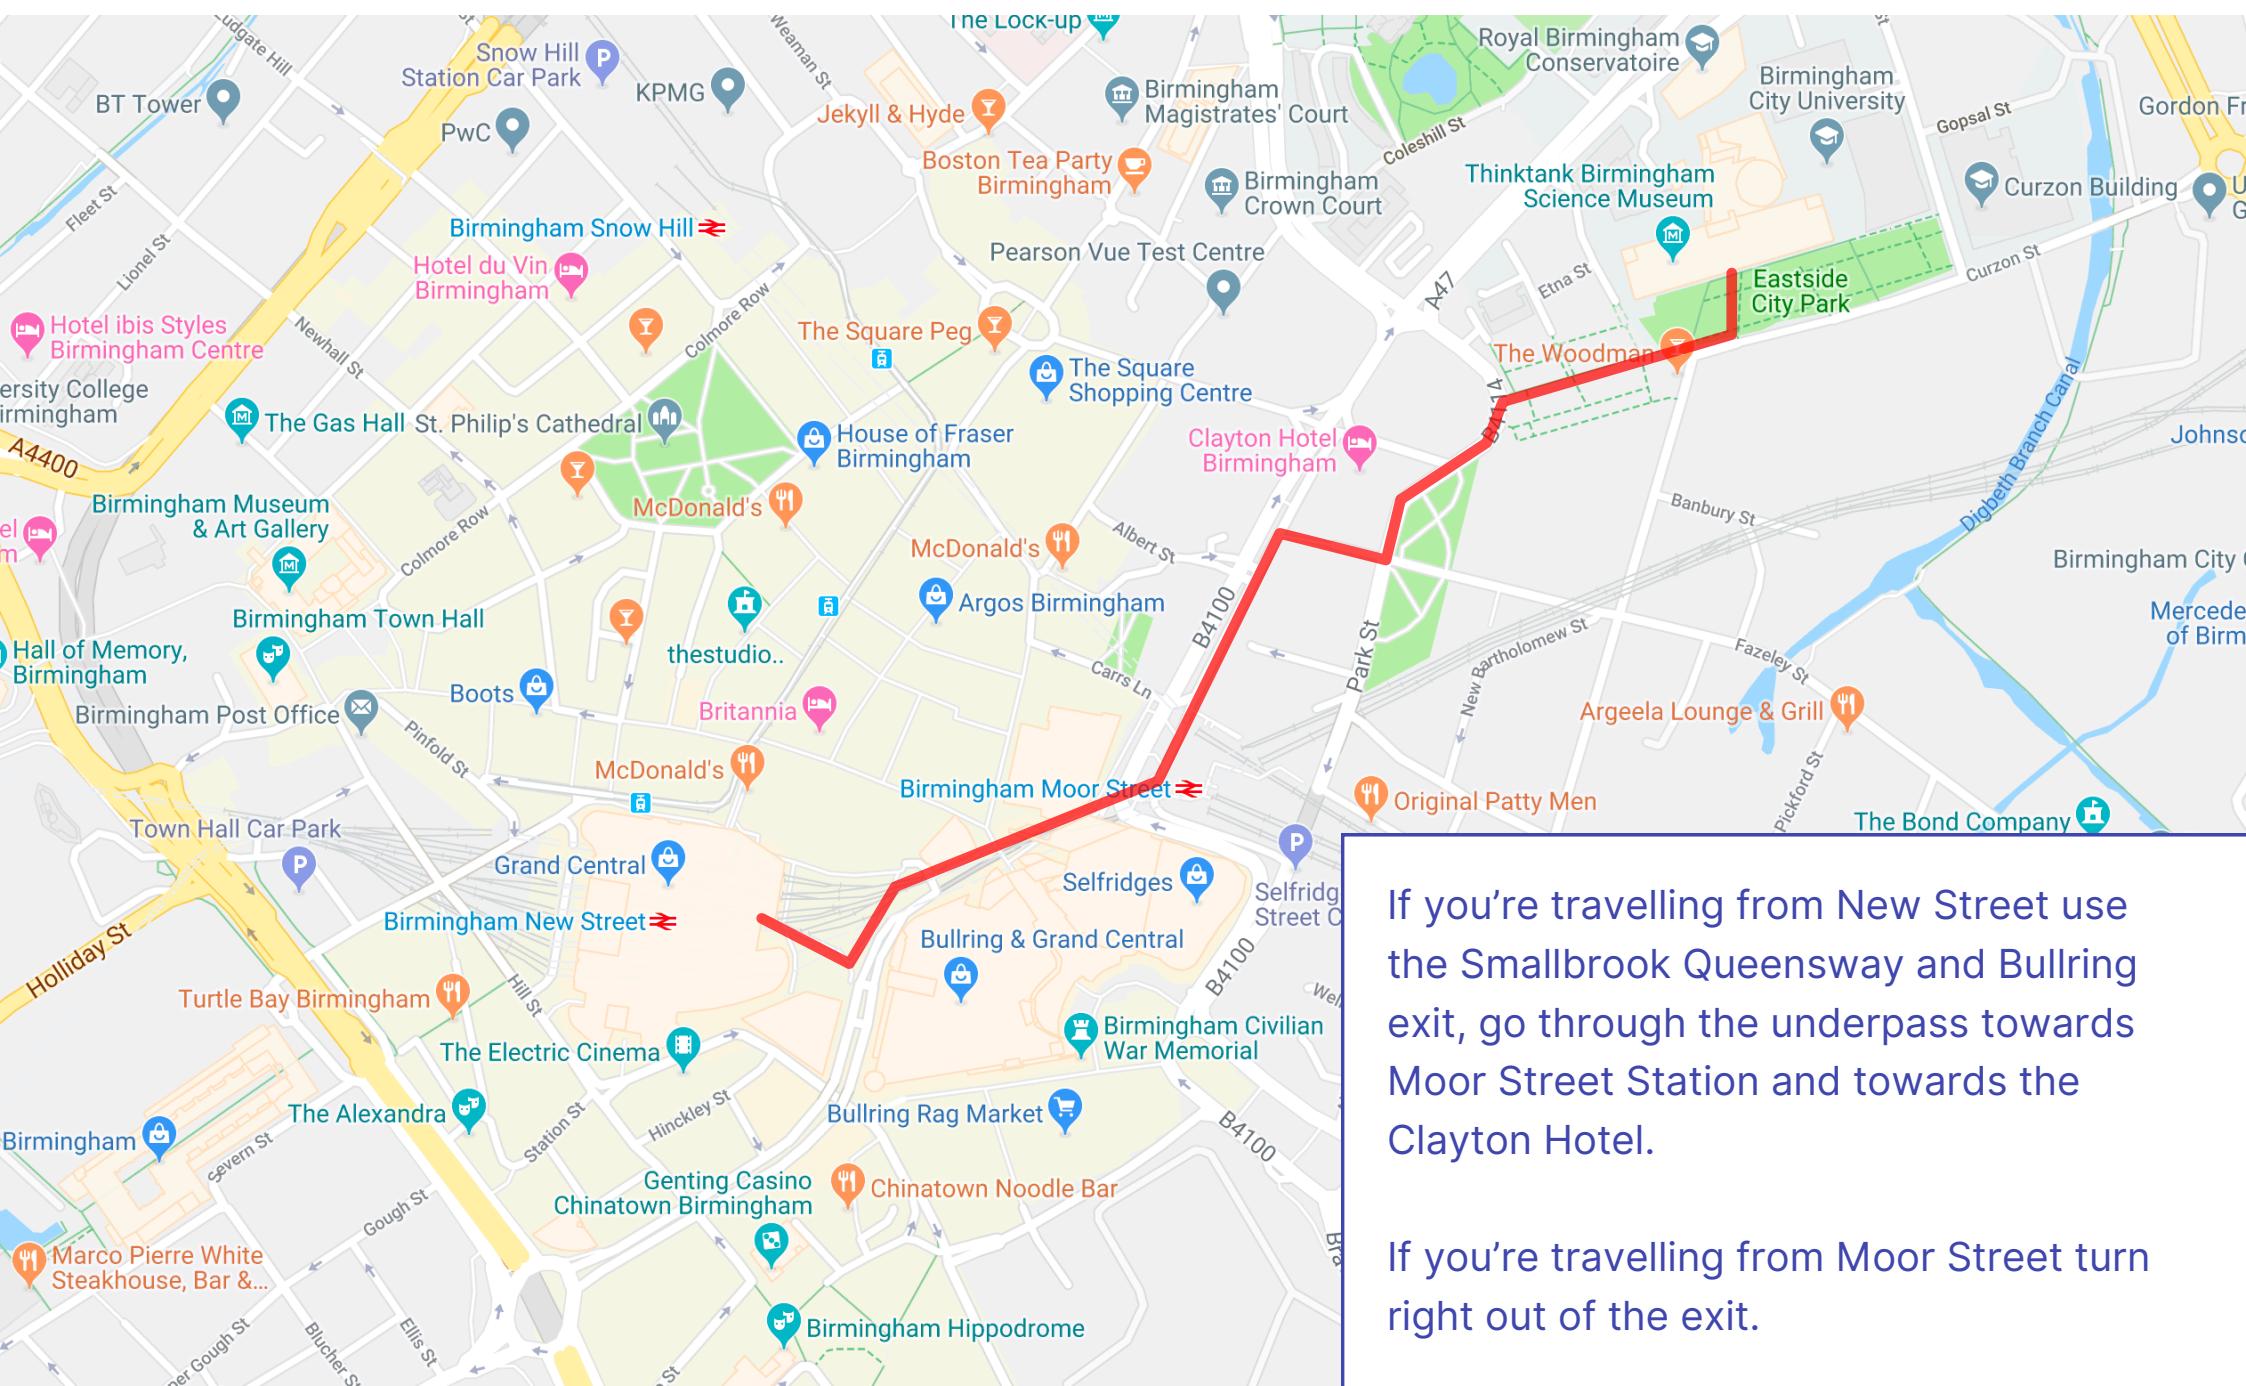

YELLOW LANYARDS MEANS NO PHOTOS PLEASE

If you're posting photos, check for lanyards in it. If you see them, just delete the photo.

BIRMINGHAM STATIONS TO MILLENIUM POINT

KEEPING IT ALL IN

FOR CONFIDENTIAL SUPPORT, YOU CAN TALK TO US.

childline

#ToughToTalk

ONLINE ON THE PHONE ANYTIME
childline.org.uk | 0800 1111